Informational Speaker at the Chamber Office

Susan Jenkins, with the Department of Health, will share ideas on "How To Promote a Healthier Workplace", Thur., Sept. 24, 8 am. Everyone is encouraged to attend this networking group of like-minded community business leaders. The Chamber hosts this event on the last Thursday of each month and addresses various topics of interest. Ideas are always welcomed.

Our Chamber Members in Action!

What a great group of community minded business professionals! Whether it is workshops, trade shows, training sessions, breakfast events, after hour socials, ribbon cuttings, award presentations, investment seminars or celebrating our youth at the end of a school year, you see it, we do it! It's never too late to jump in and participate in one of the many networking opportunities the Chamber offers.

A special thank you to all our Chamber Volunteers, Ambassadors, Board of Directors and City Officials for their participation in the success of these events and more...
